

Ian Dixey

Solicitor: 1971
Call: 1984
Email: ian.dixey@guildhallchambers.co.uk

Practice:
Health & Safety
Crime

Health & Safety

Ian has been practising in the area of health and safety prosecution and defence for a number of years, having been defence counsel in R v F Howe & Sons Ltd which remains the leading sentencing authority.

He is on the Attorney Generals 'A' List for health and safety prosecution and has advised and prosecuted in a wide range of fatal and non-fatal cases on behalf of the HSE, the CPS and local authorities.

His defence work includes manslaughter and the recent successful defence of a furniture company charged with being responsible for the death of a contractor who fell through the roof of their premises. He has also been particularly concerned in the area of directors' and executives personal responsibilities under s.37, and the problems that arise when corporate defendants go into liquidation.

Crime

Particular experience in fraud and child abuse cases

Reported Cases:

R v F Howe & Sons (Engineering) Ltd. - the guideline case on sentencing in Health and Safety cases

Pupillage:

St John's Chambers, Bristol

Appointments:

CPS Grade 4 Prosecutor
Attorney General's Unified List of Prosecuting Advocates – Category 'A'

Directory recommendations:

Chambers UK 2011

Crime

Others at the set to impress include Ian Dixey, "a solid performer who has particular expertise in serious offences of a sexual nature".

Health & Safety

Solicitors admire his defence work as much as they do that of Ian Dixey at the same chambers. Dixey also acts as a prosecutor, and is on the Attorney General's Panel 'A' list. His "tenacity and experience as an advocate" are well recognised by all who encounter him professionally.

Chambers UK 2010

Crime

Ian Dixey has a broad practice but specialises in sexual offences.

Health & Safety

Ian Dixey a “formidable barrister” - on the Attorney General’s A List for prosecuting advocates but can also lay claim to impressive defence practises. Dixey prosecutes on behalf of the HSE, local authorities and the CPS in health and safety cases, and also maintains a flourishing general criminal practice. He wins plaudits for being “a very fair-minded barrister who provides thoughtful and intuitive advice.”

Chambers UK 2009

Crime

Of the juniors, Ian Dixey is particularly renowned for his skill in cases relating to indecent images and sexual offences. His “depth of knowledge and great sensitivity” serve him well in this regard.

Health and Safety

Ian Dixey, “a proper health and safety barrister who can really be trusted to get results.” He has an impressive track record, both prosecuting for regulatory bodies and defending in manslaughter cases.

Legal 500 2010

Health & Safety

Ian Dixey ‘quickly gets to the issues in cases and does not take bad points’.

Legal 500 2009

Ian Dixey has a broad practice but specialises in sexual offences.

Legal 500 2008

Health & Safety

Guildhall Chambers’ Ian Dixey has defended in several fatal accident prosecutions.

Interests:

Sport

Wine

Clerk:

Please contact Lucy Northeast (lucy.northeast@guildhallchambers.com)