

Mark Worsley

Call: Bar of England Wales 1994
New York Bar 1989
Email: mark.worsley@guildhallchambers.co.uk

Practice:

Criminal Law

Briefed to prosecute and defend in all areas of the Criminal Law including:

- Violence
- Sex crime
- Fraud
- Drugs
- Money laundering and proceeds of crime

Education:

Inns of Court School of Law (1993 - 1994)
Emory University School of Law, Atlanta, USA (1987 - 1989) Studied Human Rights law, International Arbitration, Public International Law, Soviet Law and US Constitutional law
University of Newcastle-upon-Tyne (1984 -1987) LLB (Hons) 2.1
King Edward's School, Birmingham (1978 – 1983)

Pupillage:

Middle Temple Lane (Chambers of Colin Dines and Andrew Trollope Q.C.) (1994 - 1995)
6 King's Bench Walk (Chambers of Michael Worsley Q.C.) (1995 - 1996)

Professional career:

1996 - present Guildhall Chambers

1989 – 1992 Hughes Hubbard & Reed, New York, USA.

Attorney. Represented clients in a wide variety of public and private corporate transactions. Work included legal research, securities compliance, due diligence reviews, negotiation with State and Federal securities officials, negotiating and drafting contractual documents and conducting closings

1988-1989 The Carter Presidential Center, Atlanta, USA.

Managed all post-selection aspects of the 1988 Carter-Menil Human Rights Prize. Work included liaison with members of the US Senate and the African National Congress (then in exile) and negotiations with representatives of the South African government.

Appointments

Attorney General's Unified List of Prosecuting Advocates

Professional memberships:

Criminal Bar Association
Member of the Bar of England and Wales
Member of the New York Bar

Interests:

Mark's main interest outside work and which occupies most of his spare time is his family. He likes to walk the mountains of North Wales given the opportunity and is to be found for a part of most summers with his family in France or Spain. Favourite cities – Barcelona and New York

Further information:

Happy to accept instructions in disciplines related to the general criminal law including:

- Licensing
- Health and safety and criminal bankruptcy

Clerk:

Please contact Lucy Northeast (lucy.northeast@guildhallchambers.co.uk)