

Martin Lanchester

Call: 2001

Email: martin.lanchester@guildhallchambers.co.uk

Practice:

Crime

Regulatory crime

Regulatory crime

Martin is a member of the Regulatory Crime team. Having read Natural Sciences at Cambridge University for his first degree Martin has a high level of familiarity with complex technical and scientific concepts. He has an ongoing interest in the areas of Waste and Pollution and has advised and acted for local authorities as well as private clients in actions brought by the EA. Martin has also acted in noise nuisance cases and acted for Trading Standards.

Education:

2000-2001 BVC Inns of Court School of Law, (Very Competent)

1999-2000 CPE at City University (Commendation)

1992-1995 MA (Hons) St Catharine's College Cambridge, Natural Sciences (2.1)

Pupillage:

2001-2002 Guildhall Chambers

Appointments:

CPS Grade 3 prosecutor

Attorney General's Unified List of Prosecuting Advocates

Interests:

Playing music

Surfing

Love of all things Italian

Clerk:

Please contact Grant Bidwell (grant.bidwell@guildhallchambers.co.uk)