About the Speakers

Our team of Pain Management Experts provide valuable clinical experience to the legal profession, specialising in the management of patients dealing with chronic pain, often accompanied by psychosocial challenges and significant physical limitations.

Our experts have a strong track record in handling various clinical cases involving chronic pain and are well-versed in both interventional and non-interventional techniques used for managing these complex cases.

Furthermore, our experts primarily offer insights to the courts, focusing on critical aspects such as causation, condition, and prognosis. This expertise extends to both personal injury claims and clinical negligence cases. Additionally, some of our experts can also provide opinions on matters related to breach of duty, liability, and causation in clinical negligence claims involving other pain management specialists.
