

FRANCESCA CHAPLIN

Call 2024

✉	clerks@guildhallchambers.co.uk
☎	0117 930 9000

Francesca Chaplin is a pupil barrister in the Criminal Team. She is being supervised by Sam Jones.

Francesca studied Classics at university, with a year abroad in Canada. After this she did a law conversion in London, during which she volunteered with the School Exclusion Project. Francesca has completed legal summer courses with Leiden University (The Hague) and Pázmány Péter University (Budapest).

She also had an Atkin Chambers Scholarship for the Bar Course from Middle Temple. As well as, Forster and Malby Prizes for both first year and second year results and the Vice Chancellor's Scholarship for Academic Excellence from Durham University.

Education

Undergraduate at Durham University

– First Class Honours

Year abroad in Canada at University of Calgary

– 4.0 GPA

GDL and BVS at City, University of London