Jack is a pupil barrister in the Commercial team. He started his pupillage in October 2023 under the supervision of James Wibberley.

Prior to commencing pupillage, Jack worked as a legal consultant for Capital Law where he primarily advised on sport and construction arbitration matters. He also undertook a range of drafting work in claims in the Commercial Court, including Part 18 requests and witness evidence regarding security for costs, freezing orders and Part 71 examinations.

Alongside his law studies, Jack interned at the UNIDROIT Secretariat in Rome and carried out research on secured lending regulation and public international law.

In his spare time, Jack volunteers for the British Red Cross.
