CLINICAL NEGLIGENCE SEMINAR @ THE MSHED, BRISTOL - POSTPONED

22 Apr, 2020

THIS EVENT IS POSTPONED UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE

FOLLOWING ON FROM ADVICE FROM THE GOVERNMENT YESTERDAY WE HAVE TAKEN THE DECISION TO DEFER ALL OF OUR EVENTS WHICH ARE SCHEDULED TO TAKE PLACE UP TO THE END OF MAY 2020.

We are currently looking into whether we look to deliver some seminar or breakfast bite topics by webinar.

For those who have already booked and paid for this event we will issue you with a full refund.

Please keep an eye on our website for updates over the coming weeks.

If you have any queries in relation to any of our events please contact our Marketing & Events Manager via email

DATE: WEDNESDAY 22ND APRIL 2020

VENUE: THE MSHED, BRISTOL

COST: £50.00 + VAT

15% DISCOUNT OFF THE FULL DELEGATE RATE IF TWO OR MORE FROM THE SAME FIRM BOOK TO ATTEND

The team are delighted to announce that they will be hosting their Clinical Negligence Seminar on Wednesday 22nd April 2020 at The MShed in Bristol.

The seminar will include presentations and practical case studies presented by members of our team. We are also incredibly lucky to have Dr Alexandra Freeman from the Winton Centre for Risk and Evidence Communication who assists Judges and lawyers as well as doctors to communicate risk.

Proof, Philosophy and Statistics in Clinical Negligence

Key topics

- The Burdens and Opportunities of Multiple Medical Causes
- The Crystal Ball: Consent and Causation
    - Disclosure of risks/ scope and causation
    - Operation on a different date
- Communicating numbers to patients and in court: Dr Alexandra Freeman
- Proof in difficult cases: Asking your expert the right questions
- Memories and Medical Notes

A more comprehensive programme will follow in due course.

We are keeping the Covid-19 situation under review and will let you know as soon as possible, by email and also by putting something on our website, if we make a decision to postpone any of our events.