

INSOLVENCY SEMINAR AT THE M-SHED - 21ST JUNE 2022

21 Jun, 2022

To sign up for this event, please do so here or at the bottom of this page.

Chaired by Chief Insolvency and Companies Court Judge Briggs and providing a combination of high level technical and practical content aimed at both solicitors and insolvency practitioners, this full day seminar will include a keynote address by the Honourable Mr Justice Zacaroli, an update from Paul Bannister (Head of Policy in the Insolvency Service) and a series of talks from members of Chambers and guest speakers on a range of key topics, including:

- Claims for breach of the Quincecare duty of care
- Smart contracts and void dispositions under ss.127 and 284 of the Insolvency Act 1986
- Dealing with trust assets in insolvent estates including consideration of the CASS rules, the Payment Services Regulations 2017, Berkely Applegate orders and Re Benjamin Orders
- Breach of directors' duties including analysis of the long-awaited decision of the Supreme Court in BTI 2014 LLC v Sequana S.A.
- Cross-border insolvency in a post-Brexit world including recognition and enforcement in foreign jurisdictions
- Insolvency practitioners: duties & liability including consideration of professional negligence claims and the duties of monitors
- Personal insolvency case update
- Refreshments will be provided throughout the day, including drinks and canapes at the end of the seminar

A detailed schedule will be released closer to the event date.

